

Red Nose Day is back for its fourth year in America, encouraging everyone to come together to end child poverty, one nose at a time.

Money raised supports projects that ensure children in need are safe, healthy and educated, including programs that feed America member food banks in all 50 states

Smiles4children is supporting the cause by wearing their Red Noses.

There is a special night of TV on NBC on May 24.

www.rednoseday.org

